

Cancellation of Core Strategy Background Paper No. 2 (Affordable Housing), January 2011

The most recent version of Background Paper No. 2 Affordable Housing was published in February 2010.

This provides further information and evidence concerning:-

- The definition of Affordable Housing
- National and Regional Policy
- The findings of the Councils Strategic Housing Market Assessment and Economic Viability Assessment
- information on completions and commitments
- a mechanism for setting targets and thresholds for affordable housing
- Commuted Sum contributions.

The contents of this background paper have now been superseded by more up to date evidence embodied in

- The Submission Draft Core Strategy text relating to Policy CP5 published January 2011
- The Draft Affordable Housing Supplementary Document published January 2011
- The Affordable Housing Economic Viability Study published September 2009 accompanied by the Small Sites Threshold Testing supplementary work published in December 2010

As a result Background Paper No. 2 is cancelled.
