

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- 1 You must ask someone if they are willing and able to be your proxy and vote on your behalf. Please note that a person can only be the proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at the same election or referendum.*
- 2 Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you want to vote by proxy. You must get someone to support your application. You can find out who can do this below.
- 3 Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature.
- 4 Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. Please note: your application form must arrive at your electoral registration office by 5pm, 11 working days before an election or referendum when changing or cancelling an existing proxy, postal or postal proxy vote and by 5pm, 6 working days before an election or referendum when applying for a new proxy vote. If you are not already registered to vote, your application to register must have reached the Electoral Registration Officer by midnight, 12 working days before the poll.

This form and these deadlines do not apply in Northern Ireland. Visit www.eoni.org.uk for more information.

Voting by proxy

In England and Wales you must be aged 18 or over on polling day to vote at an election or referendum.

In Scotland, you must be aged 16 or over on polling day to vote in Scottish Parliamentary and local government elections, and must be 18 or over on polling day to vote in the European Union Referendum and UK Parliamentary or European Parliamentary elections.

If you cannot vote at an election or referendum in person, you can apply to vote by proxy (someone else voting on your behalf). You can use this form to apply to vote by proxy if your employment or your spouse or civil partner's employment means that you cannot vote in person.

*By referendum we mean the European Union Referendum, Neighbourhood Planning Referendums, Council Tax Referendums, Mayoral & Governance Arrangements Referendums and Local Authority Advisory polls. If you wish to apply to vote by post for a different type of referendum, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer.

Who can support my application?

- If you have an employer, your employer or another authorised person at your workplace
- If you are self-employed, a person who is aged 18 years or over, who knows you and is not related to you.

Your supporter will need to give their details in section 7 of the form. They must also complete either:

- 8A if you are employed; or
- 8B if you are self-employed; or
- 8C if you are the spouse or civil partner of an employed person; or
- 8D if you are the spouse or civil partner of a self-employed person.

In Scotland, your supporter can also be 16 or 17 years old for Scottish Parliamentary and local government elections only. If your supporter is 16 or 17 years old, they should give their details in section 7 of the form and complete either:

- 8E if you are employed; or
- 8F if you are self-employed; or
- 8G if you are the spouse or civil partner of an employed person; or
- 8H if you are the spouse or civil partner of a self-employed person.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your local polling station to vote. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. They can apply to do this up to 11 working days before election day. They should contact the electoral registration office for more details.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You should let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party, or outcome.

- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on election day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud.

If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer.

Voting as proxy

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

The person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are 18 or over (16 or over in Scotland at Scottish Parliamentary and local government elections) and they are (or will be) registered for that election or referendum.

More information

If you have any questions about voting by proxy, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk or contact your electoral registration office.

In England and Wales, the electoral registration office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office.

For contact details, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk

Electoral Registration Officers will only use the information you provide for electoral purposes. They will look after personal information securely and will follow the Data Protection Act 1998. Electoral Registration Officers will not give personal information about you to anyone else or another organisation unless they have to by law.
